
Replacing a breaker in China in El-Salvador

Why is El Salvador partnering with China?

This transformative partnership, rooted in El Salvador's recognition of the "One China" policy, has evolved into a comprehensive alliance fostering economic, infrastructural, and even military collaboration. A cornerstone in this burgeoning relationship was President Nayib Bukele's historic state visit to China in December 2019.

How has China impacted El Salvador?

This diplomatic alignment unlocked a wave of Chinese investment and support, which has played a pivotal role in El Salvador's national development. One of the most tangible outcomes of this cooperation is the substantial non-reimbursable financial aid from China, which has facilitated numerous infrastructure projects across El Salvador.
